Next Edition Not Far Off

You may have noticed that there is no domestic outdoor material in this newsletter. Since we're new to this monthly stuff, we'e still figuring out the best way to present the material and we decided that making a clean break with the indoor season at this point is a good idea. But rather than wait another month before we get to the outdoor wouldn't make sense, so we'll be mailing you another newsletter in two weeks (April 14). You may end up with a free issue in the end.
