Talk Track With People Who Share Your Level Of Interest

As a Track & Field News subscriber who cares enough about the sport to have signed on for eTN, you are obviously incredibly passionate about the sport that we all love.

In our ongoing efforts to develop synergy between the print version of the magazine (which will always remain our prime focus) and the electronic side of things, the T&FN staff is excited to announce that we're launching an on-line message board.

This will be a place where you can both pose thoughts of your own and react to the postulations of your fellow track nuts (not to mention T&FN staff members and leading correspondents), 24/7.

This service will become operational at high noon (PDT) on Wednesday, April 16.

At that time you simply need to go to our website, click on the message-board link and you'll be up and running.

You'll be able to post anonymously, should you choose, but if you register (a very simple process), you'll gain proprietary rights to the screen name you choose, which is why we're giving you advance notice.

Looking forward to chatting with you!

—the T&FN staff
