Click Here: 2003 Online World Champs Prediction Contest

You pick twenty Paris winners and score the winners you get right. Sounds easy? There is a catch: You have to order your winners and are scored accordingly. In other words, you have a 20-point pick, a 19-point pick, etc., etc. So you only have to pick about half the winners in the meet, but you have to get them in the maximal order to win. There is a maximum score of 210 points.

Daily score updates will be emailed to you and the top 10 overall will be posted on the website. Enter at www.trackandfieldnews.com.

Since this is our first attempt at an online prediction contest there will be no prizes. See p. 61 of the August T&FN for a contest in which prizes will be awarded.
