

— Walker's AR Highlights A Super Pre —

by Jack Pfeifer

Eugene, Oregon; June 8—Brad Walker actually attempted 6.16 (a Bubkaland 20-2½), after flying over 6.04 (19-9¾), a centimeter higher than Jeff Hartwig's 8-year-old AR, at the Nike Prefontaine Classic.

"I've never heard cheering like I heard at the week. It was great."

Hartwig, now a Master at 40, was on hand and cleared 18-4½ (5.60) to tie for 4th. "He came up and give me a big hug," Walker said. "He said it was some of the best jumping he had ever seen me take. That means a lot from a guy who has jumped with Sergey Bubka."

There was a lot of cheering on a long Sunday of track & field at the 36th Pre, on the first reasonably warm, sunny day in the Willamette Valley in weeks. One of the best Pres ever produced no fewer than 8 meet records and two U.S. all-comers marks.

With new seating in place for the Olympic Trials, now just a fortnight away, Hayward Field packed in a meet-record crowd of 14,221. Those savvy Oregon fans were roaring all day, sensing that something bigger was just around the corner, and it all started just as the first sermons of the morning were letting out.

At 8:15 a.m. fans were already queued up along Agate Street, because the first race of the day was none other than an attempt at the men's WR in the 10K, a record that has never been set in the U.S. (Yes, in '65 in San Diego, if Mills and Lindgren had run one more lap during their 6-mile WR, they might have had it.)

There was something rare and pure as a dozen of the best runners in the world—Louis Luchini the only one not African-born—took to the line, with no fanfare and a few thousand of the hardiest of Eugene's legendary fans in their seats.

Meet Director Tom Jordan had magically lured none other than Kenenisa Bekele – already WR holder at 5 and 10—to try to run even faster than his own astonishing 26:17.53, the Games still a safe two months away.

It was so quiet and intimate, everyone in the stadium could hear the starter's commands in what was surely the world's most prestigious morning all-comers meet. Conditions seemed perfect: sunny, temperatures in the 50s and with occasional light breezes.

And, they were away, Luchini doing his duty, a 63 right away, he hit his mark. On the backstretch, everyone came to life, pounding the boards of the old East Grandstand, giving encouragement. The Hayward Field 10K record? 27:29.9 in 1982 by the old Cougar, Henry Rono. These fans know their 10Ks.

Luchini slipped to 64, then 65, so he stepped off and Kenyan Boaz Cheboiywo took over: 62, another 62, back on pace, Bekele in lockstep, 4:13.9 at 1,600, announcer Scott Davis precisely calling out every split. "He's on pace!"

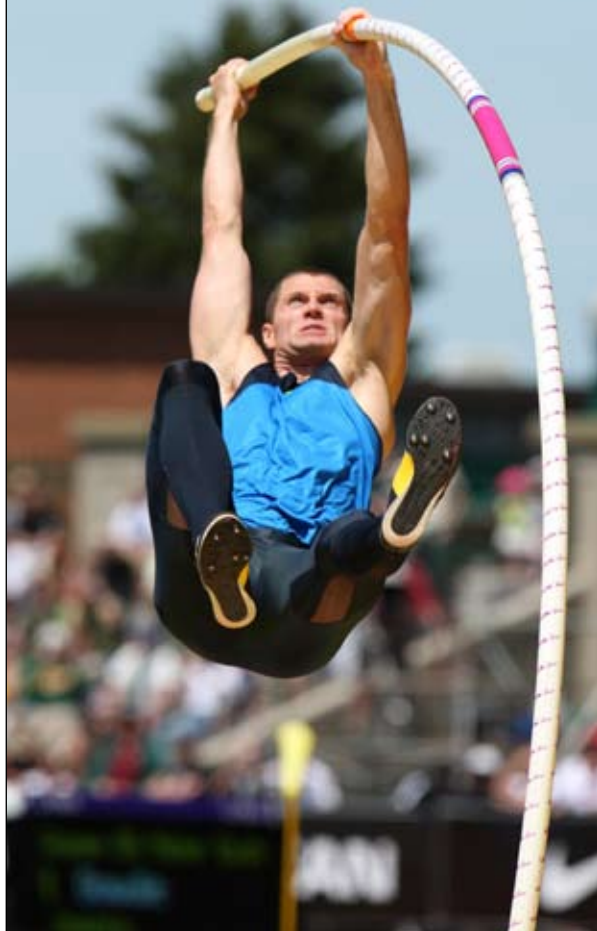

Cheboiywo slipped to 65 on Lap 7, so here came Abreham Feleke, an 18-year-old Ethiopian with a 12:54 PR. Feleke poured it on. Back to 62, a 2:35 kilo, he kept rolling, an astonishing 13:09.86 for 5K—a 13:09 rabbit!—and then he stepped off as planned and just like that, like a man parachuting into the desert, Bekele was alone.

The crowd clapped, roared, stamped, but it gradually slipped away to 64s and 65s, and he settled for a mere 26:25.97. Only he and Gebrselassie have run faster. In Ron Clarke's revolutionary 27:39.4 WR at Bislett in '65, Bekele would have lapped him.

"I did my best," he said modestly. "I was getting cold. I'm satisfied. I liked the crowd very much. The weather was nice. I like the fresh air very much. I like the sun."

With that, Eugene's fans settled in for 5 more hours of competition. On June 27, when the Trials begin, most of them will be back.

my second attempt at the WR," the 26-year-old Washingtonian said. "It startled me. It's overwhelming. But I'll take that any day of
