

— Pre-Trials: Marks Madness Time —

THERE'S A SENSE OF URGENCY in the air almost every year as the Nationals approach, but the urgency gets manic in Olympic years. Let's face it, everybody would give just about anything to get into the Trials.

So it is that a lot of last-minute meets are invented (and re-invented the next day or week) and people travel far and wide in search of those elusive Q's.

That makes life tough for statisticians, who have to sort out the wheat from the proverbial chaff. Things just don't seem kosher sometimes, so it's with a sense of regret that we publish some marks. Those we don't quite buy, but don't have enough evidence to reject.

Some we do reject out of hand (even if the person does convince somebody they truly belong in the OT). Thus it is that this newsletter won't be carrying a purported 10.00 by a 27-year-old with a documented PR of 10.46 that dates back to '02.
