

— Fernandez Takes Down HS 2M Record —

by Dave Johnson

German Fernandez smashed the high school 2-mile record with a marvelous 8:34.40 at the Nike Outdoor Nationals.

Achieved in a scholastic setting without open runners, Fernandez managed to consolidate some of the records.

The old HSR, run in open competition, was Jeff Nelson's 8:36.3 from the '79 Pepsi meet. The best mark recorded in scholastic competition had been Craig Virgin's 8:40.9 in '73.

Unfortunately, Fernandez barely missed his own 3200-meter best of 8:34.23 set at this year's California state meet. That's only worth 8:37.22 for the yard distance, but it'll be carried as the HSR by the national federation.

Along the way, Fernandez also consolidated the 3000 records with his 7:59.83, taking down Galen Rupp's 8:03.67 in an open race in '04 as well as John Trautmann's 8:05.8 scholastic race mark from '86.

Fernandez entered the Nike Outdoor Nationals with the express intent of breaking Nelson's mark.

He would have help, with the likes of Luke Puskedra, Rob Finnerty and Colby Lowe to push him. Whether any would help set the pace for the front-running Fernandez was debatable.

As the pack leader, Fernandez was faced with homestretch headwinds of roughly 2mps. The race immediately preceding the 2M was the girls' 2M, won by Neely Spence in 10:20.77. Spence ran splits of 5:19.0 and 5:01.8 as no one had wanted to set the pace in the face of the wind.

From the start it was certain to be a single-file race. Puskedra had the lead on the backstretch of the first lap, but Fernandez grabbed it midway through the first homestretch. Fernandez went through the first quarter and quarter in 65.7, the slowest of the race. It appeared to be a plan to share the lead, but Lowe and Finnerty were already beginning to lag.

The Fernandez/Puskedra summit meeting came out lopsided in the Californian's favor

VICTOR SALLERPHOTO/RII

Fernandez took the lead early in the third lap, never to relinquish it. Maintaining his steady tempo, he rolled through three-quarters in 3:15.2 (65.0 for the lap), and the mile in 4:19.6, a lap in 64.4, his fastest thus far. Puskedra was hanging on, a stride or two behind, with Lowe farther back.

But Finnerty was gone, some 20 meters back. At this point Fernandez needed to come back faster than 4:16.7.

On the fifth circuit, Fernandez started moving, running 63.9 for a 5:23.5, with Lowe still three meters behind. But with the wind at his back, Fernandez started rolling on the backstretch and Puskedra let him go.

The homestretch wind hit Fernandez, and despite having broken Puskedra he ran only 64.6 for the sixth circuit, passing a mile-and-a-half in 6:28.1.

While there might have been some fears that the pace was lagging, that would have been evident only from looking at a watch, not from seeing Fernandez moving, as he seemed to have plenty of run left in him.

Needing a final half better than 2:08.3, Fernandez pushed the pace harder, appearing to run his fastest portion of the race from the start of the penultimate backstretch through the next 500 meters. He was rolling now, and mile in 64.5 with Puskedra three meters back with another meters to Lowe and one more to Finnerty.

Showing a willingness to share the pace, Puskedra led at the half mile in 2:10.1, with Fernandez at 2:10.2, having turned his sec-took the bell in 7:31.4, the last lap in 63.3, his quickest of the race and now needing anything under 64.9 to seal the record.

Charging around the first turn and down the backstretch, Fernandez hit the 3000m mark in 7:59.83, and continued the effort around the final curve and down the home stretch. Fighting the wind, he kept moving well, and as he neared the line with the finish line clocking ticking away, allowed a slight let-up and mild celebration in the last two strides.

Puskedra was just entering the straightaway as Fernandez finished, and barely held off Lowe, the two running 8:47.06 and 8:47.07. Finnerty took 4th in 8:50.96.
