

You're About To Get The Oly Previews!!!

This is not your normal edition of eTN, as I'm sure you can tell.

It contains no results of any kind.

Its sole purpose is to advise you that the world-famous T&FN Olympic Previews are about to start coming your way (Saturday afternoon is the kickoff).

There are 47 track & field events on the docket in Beijing, and we've prepared a whole page of insight for you on each of the events.

They have been turned into PDF format, which is easily openable by virtually all computers, either as a download or on-screen, depending on your preference. They're about 200kb in size (the same as a weekly edition of eTN).

But because there are 47 of them (48 including this intro), your ISP may decide they're spam, so be on the lookout for that. If all else fails, you'll be able to sign on to the members-only section of our home page and get the material directly there.

Reproduced here is a thumbnail version of the men's 10K page. Here's what each of the pages will give you.

THE FORMCHART

This is our choices, in order for the top 10, and includes the athlete's PR (field events in both metric and imperial).

THE SCOOP

This is our analysis of why we think things will play out in the order we have listed. Sometime we're even right!

THE SCHEDULE

Dates & times for each of the rounds in the event.

THE STATS

See what the Records (World, American, Olympic) are for the event, and find a listing of the medalists for the '04 OG and the '05 & '07 WC.

THE ALL-TIME TOP 10

A listing of the event's best performers ever, with those who will be in the event in Beijing in bold face.

Prepare to be entertained!!!
