KEY TO LISTS

These lists give the top 40 U.S. performers (and top 10 performances, denoted by a ——) of the 2008 season, with an appending of those foreign collegians whose marks fall into that range. In the wind-aided category, the domestics and foreign collegians are commingled (' after name = foreigner on windy list). Relay teams may contain non-U.S. nationals.

Open athletes and high schoolers have no notation before their name. Collegians are noted by class: - = senior; * = junior; =soph;  = frosh; ? = unknown.

(A) = altitude over 1000m (in affected events only). Wind-aided marks are those of greater than 2.0mps. Windy marks are listed only if superior to the best legal mark (windy performances listed to level of legal performances). In field events, ¶ = field mark where complete series not known.

In the marathon and half-marathon lists, ' = aided course. Since so many road runners are unaffiliated, a state affiliation represents their home, not a school.

2008 MEN'S ATHLETE OF THE YEAR

Usain Bolt Unanimous

OK, maybe somewhere in a distant galaxy, far far away, there's someone who might be surprised to learn that Usain Bolt has been chosen as 2008 Athlete Of The Year by Track & Field News.

Most notably, the Jamaican Jet became only the third man in the 50-year history of the magazine's AOY choices to receive a perfect score from our international panel. The trick was previously turned by Kenya's Henry Rono in 1978 and Texan Michael Johnson in 1996. But even in year where there were other World Record setters and Olympic champions were crowned in every event, Bolt stood tallest.

The 18 athletes who received votes (on 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 scoring system) for 2008, and their totals:

1. Usain Bolt (Jamaica—sprints)..... 380
2. Kenenisa Bekele (Ethiopia—distances)..... 330
3. Dayron Robles (Cuba—110 hurdles)..... 313
4. Bryan Clay (USA—decathlon)..... 205
5. LaShawn Merritt (USA—400 meters)..... 171
6. Haile Gebrselassie (Ethiopia—distances)..... 144
7. Gerd Kanter (Estonia—discus)..... 128
8. Irving Saladino (Panama—long jump)..... 121
9. Sammy Wanjiru (Kenya—marathon)..... 81
10. Andrey Silnov (Russia—high jump)..... 53

2008 WOMEN'S ATHLETE OF THE YEAR

Tirunesh Dibaba's Turn

For the second year in a row an Ethiopian distance runner has been named Women's Athlete Of The Year. In '07 it was Meseret Defar; this time it was her arch-rival Tirunesh Dibaba, who broke the World Record in the 5000, then went on to score double golds in both the 5 and 10 at the Olympics.

Dibaba received 26 of the 37 votes for No. 1. In a close battle for the runner-up position, teenage sensation Pamela Jelimo actually had more No. 1s than vault WR setter Yelena Isinbayeva, 6-5, but the Russian nonetheless ended up with a 6-point margin.

The 16 athletes who received votes:

1. Tirunesh Dibaba (Ethiopia—distances) 356
2. Yelena Isinbayeva (Russia—pole vault) 323
3. Pamela Jelimo (Kenya—800 meters) 317
4. Barbora Špotáková (Czech Republic—javelin) 227
5. Gulnara Galkina (Russia—steeplechase) 163
6. Melaine Walker (Jamaica—400 hurdles) 159
7. Blanka Vlašić (Croatia—high jump) 124
8. Veronica Campbell-Brown (Jamaica—sprints) 108
9. Valerie Vili (New Zealand—shot) 102
10. Oksana Menkova (Belarus—hammer) 56
