

— Lagat Gets The Wanamaker Mile Record —

by Rich Sands

New York City, January 29—On a night filled with close finishes, Bernard Lagat and Christian ting on a clinic on how to race on Madison Square Garden's tight 146-meter banked oval.

After David Krummy set an early pace

"I didn't want to wait until the bell, I wanted to make it a little earlier," Lagat said. "I thought Kiprof was going to respond, but maybe I took off a little too fast and by the time he was trying to cover the ground it was a little too late."

Lagat, who now trains regularly with distance runner Abdi Abdirahman ("He likes to take it hard for 10, 13, even 14 miles, and I hang with him," Lagat said), confirmed that he will take aim at the 5K American Record—Galen Rupp's 13:18.12 from last winter—at the Boston Indoor Games on February 6.

In the shot, Cantwell was also a model of dominance, getting past 70-feet on all four attempts in an otherwise foul-plagued competition as he upped the yearly world lead three times. His fourth-round throw of 72-¼ (21.95) was 4½-feet ahead of runner-up Reese Hoffa.

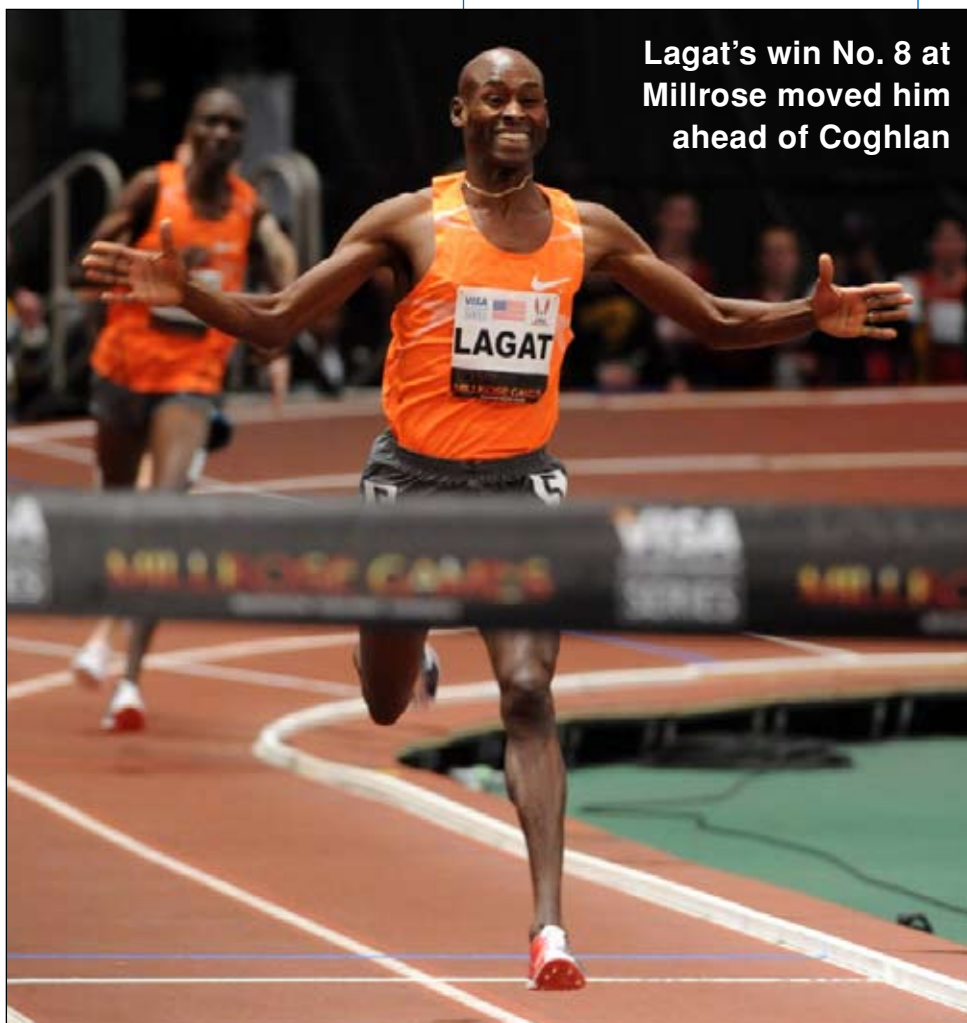

"I thought I was going to throw a little bit better," the reigning world champ said after missing his undercover PR by 9 inches. "I was hoping to throw over 22 meters [72-2¼]. I got close. All [four] throws over 70? That's pretty sick, I'll take that... If this is any indicator, then watch out."

Among the things to watch out for: Cantwell wants to make history with a third world indoor title in March, and he'd love to finally take down Randy Barnes's 21-year-old indoor WR, 74-4¼ (22.66).

"Today I thought I was going to get a little bit closer," he admitted. "Dammit, I want to get it and I want to get it bad. It's gotta come one of these days, I ain't got too much longer."

Most of the other elite events featured down-to-the-wire competition. Hannah England held off Sara Hall's spirited kick to take the women's mile by just 0.02, in 4:31.48. Bershawn Jackson, running out of gas, used an epic lean to take the 600 yards from Jamaica's Edino Steele, 1:11.26–1:11.30.

Lagat's win No. 8 at Millrose moved him ahead of Coghlan

Cantwell stood out as convincing winners at the 103rd Millrose Games.

Lagat took sole control of the meet's signature event, the Wanamaker Mile, scoring his eighth victory since '01 to break the record he shared with Eamonn Coghlan (1977–87). In ceding his title of "Chairman of the Boards," the gracious Irishman dubbed Lagat the "President of the Boards."

In fact, Lagat was more like a professor, putting of 58.4 and 1:57.9, Olympic champ Asbel Kiprof went to the front and slowed the pace down to 2:59.2. Lagat, running calmly and comfortably the whole way, made a bold move as the bell rang—much to the delight of the 11,510 fans—rocketing past the Kenyan and storming home in 3:56.34.

Kiprof was never able to respond, and it was all he could do to hold 2nd ahead of Britain's Andy Baddeley, 3:58.03–3:58.09.

Ivory Williams won the 60 over Michael Rodgers 6.59–6.60 after a fast-closing Rodgers recovered from an awful start. Lisa Barber used the same get-out-fast-and-hold-on strategy to win the women's dash over Veronica Campbell-Brown, with both timed in 7.24. (Barber's microscopic advantage was just 7.237 to 7.240.)

One fast starter who couldn't hold on was Michigan grad Tiffany Ofili, who led the women's 60 hurdles for all but the final meter, when Canadian Priscilla Lopes-Schliep came flying by on the run-in for an 8.01 win, her third Millrose victory in a row. Terrence Trammell broke the pattern in the men's hurdles, dominating from start to finish with a massive 7.49–7.61 win over world champ Ryan Brathwaite of Barbados.

Chelsea Johnson had the top jumping mark, winning the women's vault at 14-9½ (4.51). The world silver medalist looked flawless all night before coming up short at 15-3 (4.65).

A special 60 for NFL players didn't quite electrify the crowd as much as organizers had hoped, with Raiders/Titans safety Anthony Dorsett Jr. winning in 7.01.
