

— Ritz & Flanagan Win USATF Cross Titles —

by Kirby Lee

Spokane, Washington, February 11— Shalane Flanagan and Dathan Ritzenhein are heading back to their cross country roots in

By virtue of their victories, Flanagan and Ritzenhein will lead the 6-member teams for the World Championships (Bydgoszcz, Poland, March 28).

It's a great year to come back to some of the things that I love or want to try and mix it up a little."

So does Ritz, after a breakthrough track season where he ran 12:56.27 to break Bob Kennedy's 13-year-old 5K American Record and finished 9th in the World Champs 10K in 27:22.28 for the fastest time ever by an American in the global meet.

"This race is the start of the season to pick up where I left off last season," he said.

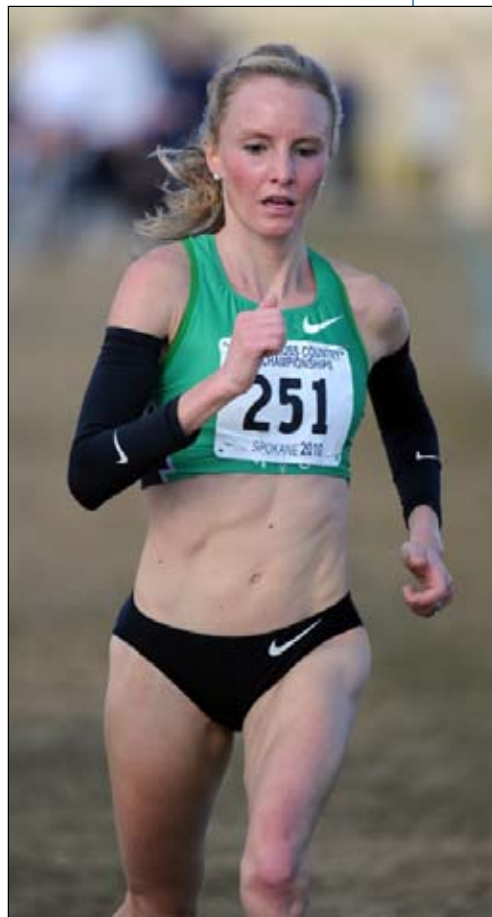

Ritzenhein, who has been under the auspices of Alberto Salazar after splitting with longtime coach Brad Hudson after the 2009 London Marathon, said that he has built upon the confidence from his AR in the 5,000m in Zurich and a bronze medal in the World Half Marathon Championships in Birmingham, England in October.

"I was just a different person. I went there to win," Ritzenhein said about the World Half-Marathon championships. "That's how I hope to be able to continue this year and the next couple of years. You have to know your capabilities but at the same time you have to put yourself in position where you can really do something special."

Ritzenhein will be looking for that feeling in Bydgoszcz. Ritzenhein finished third in the World Junior Championships in 2000 but hasn't had that confidence since despite winning the 2005 and 2008 USA senior men's titles.

"I put all that pressure on myself to medal (in 2005) when it might have been unreal-pursuit of success on the oval.

The two international veterans ran to dominating victories in the USATF Cross Country Championships at Plantes Ferry Sports Stadium.

Flanagan won the women's 8K race in 25:10, while. Ritzenhein clocked 34:34 in the men's 12K as each won for the third time.

Flanagan, who won the '04 and '05 short-course titles, opted to return to overland racing to break up the monotony of her distance training from her half-marathon debut in Houston, where she set a course record of 1:09:41.

"I've been kind of out of my element doing some longer races and now really refreshing to come back to cross country," she said. "I just miss it. It's a great sport. I loved everything about it in high school and college. I love the camaraderie of being on a team.

istic at the time,” Ritzenheim said. “Now it’s realistic because I’ve been there and done that before. I am going to go for it and I may end up fading a little bit but the end goal is to be competitive and not be afraid.”

Flanagan and Ritzenheim used opposing strategies en route to victories in Spokane in unseasonably warm temperatures in the 50s and clear skies.

Flanagan turned the women’s race that wended through soccer fields into a time trial after the first of four 2km loops en route to a 51-second victory over Molly Huddle.

Ritzenheim shadowed Patrick Smyth and Scott Bauhs for four laps in the men’s race before gradually pulling away with 3,000m to go. Smyth was second in 34:52 and Bauhs placed third in 35:01.

“I am building the confidence that I don’t have to kill people and break them early,” Ritzenheim said. “I am good enough where I can sit and wait. Because I have to have that confidence when I am racing guys like (Kenenisa) Bekele and (Zersenay) Tadese.”
