

— 43rd Arcadia High School Invitational —

by Brian Russell

Arcadia, California, April 9–10—The nation's top boys prep javelin thrower came to and shot put fields with ease, but also record a list-leading mark with the platter.

Crouser, who now rates as one of the greatest all-around throwers ever, started his day with an impressive discus PR, tossing 205-10 in the fifth round.

A couple of hours later, he scored another PR with a 64-5½ heave in the shot.

The only disappointment for the talented senior was that his talented cousin, Ryan Crouser, had to miss the meet because of a groin injury.

"I wish Ryan could have been here," he said, "because he is in great shape, too. I threw the discus 197 in crappy weather a couple of weeks ago, so I knew I had a good one in me."

Cool and breezy condition greeted the athletes for the late afternoon/evening portion of the meet.

As usual, the allure of Arcadia attracts legions of quality long distance runners from around the country and this year's boys 3200 was did not disappoint.

A somewhat pedestrian early pace (for Arcadia's standards) paved the way for a mad dash finish over the final 400.

Arizonan Brian Shrader (Sinagua, Flagstaff) took off first, but was run down by Jake Hurysz (Eastern Alamance, Mebane, North Carolina), who crossed the line first in 8:49.76 (worth 8:52.84 for 2M).

It was a very significant race, as 16 broke 9:00, topping the record 11 who broke the barrier in the '03 Arcadia race.

Hurysz summed it up perfectly where he told the crowd after the race, "If you want to run fast, come to this meet!"

Crouser and Hurysz were named co-Athletes of the Meet. The girls' honor went Kori Carter (Claremont, California), as she hurdled her way to victory in the short and long races.

In the 100H, she was pushed to the end by soph Trinity Wilson (St. Mary's, Inglewood), who nearly caught her at the line. Both were timed in 13.55, but Carter was given the nod after a photo review. She came back later to take the 300H in 42.52.

Ashton Purvis (St Elizabeth, Oakland) scored an impressive double herself, as she breezed to victories in the 100 (11.68) and 200 (23.67) for the third consecutive year.

It was a strange day for Josh Mance (Don Lugo, Chino). Due to an entry mix-up, the world youth 400 silver medalist was not entered, but eventually found out he could run in an earlier seeded race.

Mance wasted no time and ran a list-leading 46.79 in the heats, then easily won the second-section final in 47.11.

Another highlight came in the boy's decathlon, where Gunner Nixon (Santa Fe, Edmund, Oklahoma) and Kevin Lazas (Brentwood, Tennessee) duelled to the end.

It came down to the 1500, where the Oklahoman prevailed by nearly 12 seconds. Their scores of 7573 and 7510 move them to Nos. 2 and 3 all-time behind Curtis Beach's national record 7909.

Hurysz led a record 16 runners under 9:00

the 43rd Arcadia Invitational fully expecting to dominate.

Unfortunately, the javelin is not part of Arcadia's program.

Fortunately, Sam Crouser (Gresham, Oregon) was able to not only handle the discus
