

— Collegians Get Fast At The Armory —

by Jonathan Berenbom

New York City, February 4–5—Eight collegiate-leading marks highlighted edition No. 11 of the New Balance Collegiate Invitational at New York's famed Armory.

The LSU men took their fourth team title,—and first since '07, beating Texas A&M 97–80, while on the women's side BYU edged LSU, 90½–85.

The A&M women were only third in the team race, but their sprinters provided the most impressive results. Jessica Beard started off Saturday with a CL 52.25 to defend her 400 title, but was even more impressive later in the day in the 4x4.

Her 51.1 anchor broke open what had been a close back-and-forth race with Arkansas, and the Aggies' winning time of 3:30.70 has been bettered by only four other schools indoors.

"It's an amazing honor, I just feel so blessed," said Beard. "Everything that has been working in practice, with my training partners, is all coming together. I'm just happy that I can contribute to the team.

"I always enjoy New York, and not just outside around the city, but inside the Armory and the atmosphere it creates.

"The crowd here reminds me of being in Eugene for an outdoor meet. Everybody cheers for everybody here whether they know you or not."

Aggie leadoff Jeneba Tarmoh (53.2) had a busy weekend in her own right, with an Armory collegiate record in the 200 (22.98) and a runner-up finish in the 60 (7.24, behind the 7.18 CL of South Carolina's Kya Brookins)

Duke senior Kate Van Buskirk dominated the women's mile, moving to the front at halfway and winning by over eight seconds in a CL 4:35.83. Van Buskirk had also anchored Duke's 3rd-place DMR in 4:33 the previous night.

Van Buskirk, who had competed sparingly indoors during her first four years at Duke, lowered her mile PR from the 5:01.63 she had run at the '07 Tyson Invitational, and missed Shannon Rowbury's school record by less than a second.

Another runaway winner in the distances was Shippensburg's Neely Spence, a four-time NCAA II champion and daughter of '91 World Champs marathon bronze medalist Steve.

She pulled away in the final mile to win by nearly 20 seconds in 16:01.09, .

Tina Šutej of Arkansas improved her collegiate lead to 14-7¼ (4.45), just below her lifetime best (and Slovenian Record) of 14-7½ (4.46). She went on to try a CR of 14-10¾ (4.54), and was quite close on a couple of her attempts.

On the men's side, Mason Finley was named men's MVP after his win in the shot. After fouling his first two attempts, Finley improved on each of his final four, finally reaching 66-11¼ (20.40) in round six.

While not as far as his 67-11½ (20.71) from earlier in the season, it confirms that Finley is far better than he was a year ago (2010 indoor PR of 63-2 (19.25).

Also impressive in the throws was LSU senior Walter Henning, a native New Yorker, whose 72-7 (22.12) gave him a third straight win here and moved him to the top of the collegiate list, although Jake Freeman threw 77-3¼ (23.55) while competing as an open athlete.

Both hurdles races had collegiate leading performances. On the men's side, Texas soph Keiron Stewart ran a lifetime best of 7.68 to edge USC's Oscar Spurlock (7.71).

On the women's side, USC heptathlete Nia Ali ran a collegiate leading 8.06 while pre-race favorite Gabby Mayo of Texas A&M faded to last (9.80) after clipping the first hurdle and never recovering.

Jessica Beard finished her weekend with a quick 51.2 carry
