

— London DL: Wells Stops Pearson —

Wells didn't reel the world leader in until the ninth hurdle

MARK SHEPHERD

by Roy Conrad

London, July 13–14—Cracking hurdle victories by two Olympic-bound Americans highlighted the Aviva London Grand Prix, the eighth stop on the Samsung Diamond League circuit.

Kellie Wells produced a shocker over the 100 barriers as the Trials runner-up bested dominant Sally Pearson by 0.02 in 12.57.

Wells got out very close to the sharp-starting Pearson and stayed on the Aussie's right hip through much of the race. At hurdle 9, the American edged ahead and held the slight gap to the line.

Wells handed Pearson her first pure loss since she placed 2nd at the '10 Brussels meet. Coincidentally, she was unbeaten last year up to the final DL race in the Belgian capital, where she then hit a hurdle and fell.

Wells said, "My coach [Dennis Mitchell] told me to come here and do something today and I think I did pretty well. To beat someone like Sally gives me a lot of confidence."

Over the men's barriers, OT winner Aries Merritt again got the better of world champion Jason Richardson by duplicating his Eugene effort of 12.93 to stamp himself as at least a narrow Olympic favorite.

Merritt and Richardson both started well in the middle of the track and it was a two-man race all the way. Merritt clipped the first two barriers, but by hurdle 3 he had pulled even with Richardson.

By the fourth barrier, Merritt was ahead and he stayed there to the end. Richardson clocked 13.06 in 2nd (+0.6mps wind), while Ryan Wilson charged up on the outside to lead the second echelon home at 13.18 in 3rd.

Xiang Liu had been expected to offer stiff competition to the leading Americans, but after taking his heat in 13.27, China's star didn't run the final due to a back problem.

Said Merritt, "Hopefully I can shave my time even lower for the Games if the conditions are good. But this meet also gives me confidence coming into the Games because it shows I can run in any conditions—rain, cold. I can run it and run fast." It was cool and rainy for both days of the meet.

Merritt continued, "This race wasn't my best because I still don't feel right from coming off the plane. But it was pretty darn good and I'm pretty excited about the result."

The Crystal Palace straightaway saw two 100s notable not because of the times but rather the competitiveness of the sprinting.

In the men's dash, Tyson Gay got out behind both Ryan Bailey and Michael Frater but the AR holder burst from between them in the second half of the race and finished powerfully to win with 10.03 into a healthy 1.2mps wind. Bailey followed in 10.09 as Frater (10.14) slipped to 4th behind Jamaican teammate Nesta Carter (10.13).

"I got the race in and got another win under my belt, which gives me some confidence going into the Games," said Gay.

Asafa Powell withdrew before the meet, citing "soreness in my groin after our Trials. I haven't been able to train at 100% and I wanted to make sure I'm ready in August."

The heats for the women's century saw Olympic defender Shelley-Ann Fraser-Pryce prevail in the second at 10.93 over Nigeria's Blessing Okagbare (10.99). Trials winner Carmelita Jeter took the first prelim in 11.01, 0.05 ahead of Tianna Madison.

But in the final, long jumper Okagbare powered to an upset 11.01–11.03 win over shut down after some 30 meters to finish 8th and last in 11.82.

Triple jump world champ Christian Taylor bounded 57-1½ (17.41) to close the competition he led from the start. He had three jumps beyond 17.00 (55-9¼) which would have bested the 55-8 ¼ (16.97) longest

Jeter Jeter (11.03), with Madison (11.13) farther back in 3rd. Fraser-Pryce stumbled a few strides into the race, lost momentum and by Bahamian Leevan Sands.

But homesoil concern was roused when star Phillips Idowu pulled out due to what he termed "muscle tightness." The British press had been rife in recent days with questions over Idowu's status due to an foot problem he was said to have suffered at the Pre Classic in early June. Idowu denied those reports.

Yet the meet's final event raised British hopes as reigning Games 400 titlist Christine Ohuruogu collared Amantle Montsho with about 25 meters left and came home ahead, 50.42–50.56.

What Are All Those Symbols?

We realize that there is a lot of material to absorb in our agate ("agate" is journalese for small-type results), so let's see if we can't clarify it a bit for you.

A combination of numbers and letters in parentheses, such as "9, x W" would mean that the person had moved to No. 9 on the all-time world list, with a performance outside the top 10. Had it say, been the No. 9 performance, the notation would have been 9, 9 W.

You might also find something like "x, 6 A". The x in the first position means the mark is not a PR, but the performance is No. 6 in U.S. history.

We note all-time list positions for World (W), U.S. (A), College (C), Juniors (WJ or AJ) and High School (HS).

We also denote yearly list leaders for the World (WL), U.S. (AL), College (CL; Division I only) and High School (HS).
