

— Yes, Yet 2 More HSRs For Cain —

by Dave Hunter

Roxbury Crossing, Massachusetts, February 2—While a relentless, whipping Arctic wind held Greater Boston in its icy grasp, a capacity New Balance Indoor Grand Prix crowd was warmed by sizzling performances at the Reggie Lewis Center.

Track & field's royalty put on quite a show as the gathering of international athletes—including several reigning Olympic champions—made it clear that the focused preparation for Moscow is underway.

The women's 2-Mile—the meet's penultimate event—was the zenith of the evening. It was, perhaps, a rare opportunity to see a distance running legend near the apex of her career and an immensely talented youngster who may be giving us a glimpse into the future.

Ethiopia's Tirunesh Dibaba convincingly won the race, but high schooler Mary Cain, the sport's new darling, won the hearts of all in attendance, even though Baby-Faced Destroyer lived up to her name, annihilating the field.

All alone after a kilometer, Dibaba was left to soldier on, finishing in a world-leading 9:13.17 (the equivalent of 8:32.20 for 3000m).

"I thought the pacemaker would go faster, but that didn't happen," the Olympic 5000 champ explained. "I could have run faster—9:03 or 9:04." (The World Record is 9:06.26, held by arch-rival Meseret Defar.)

Meanwhile, back in the pack, Cain put together negative halves, competed gamely, and finished 3rd in 9:38.68—taking down Melody Fairchild's '91 HSR of 9:55.92.

Coach Alberto Salazar explained, "I told Mary, 'I don't care what your time is today,

I just want you to compete and do the best that you can.'"

"And we don't worry about times. I told her to forget about the first couple of girls. 'Your job is to compete in the second race.'"

An effusive Cain—oblivious to her spike-marked calves—was pleased with her showing. "I definitely felt really strong," reflected the new record holder. "It was cool having Dibaba next to me on the line. It was really an honor to run against her."

For the second week in a row, Cain double-dipped in the record department, as he went through the 3000 point in 9:04.51, destroying Fairchild's HSR of 9:17.4.

The evening closed with the men's 3000. Precise dual rabbiting was employed to set up an assault on the American Record of 7:42.73 held by Bernard Lagat.

When the mile was passed in about 4:04.0—right on pace—Ethiopian Dejen Gebremeskel fell off the pace, leaving his countryman Hagos Gebrhiwet—a finalist in the Olympic 5000—and Galen Rupp to battle for the win.

A strong move by the young African after 9 laps opened up a gap on Rupp which he could not close notwithstanding his valiant effort over the final two laps. Gebrhiwet's 7:32.87 set a new World Junior Record by 0.02.

Rupp closed on Gebrhiwet to finish in 7:33.67—missing Lagat's standard by little more than a second.

"Galen would like to break that American Re-

Cain's destruction of the High School Records list continued apace with times of 9:04.51 & 9:38.68 cord,” offered Salazar. “But he is just going to go in and compete. And if the race is right, he might be able to break it. But he is not going to go in with the idea of breaking the record and then losing the race, perhaps, as a result.”

A healthy Jenn Suhr showed she is ready to compete with the best this year. After clearing a winning height of 15-7¼ (4.70), the Olympic champ made two unsuccessful attempts—the first one was close—at the AR height of 4.90 [16-¾].

“Honestly, the first attempt was really good. I was a little bit short, so I figured that I would just go into the pole a little more, and I vaporized it,” said Suhr, who passed on her final chance. “I am looking forward to Millrose.”

In other headliner events, a cruise-controlled Matthew Centowitz held off a spirited charge by a plucky Will Leer to win the mile in 3:56.26 as he led 7 other runners under 4:00.
