

— The New Drake Turns Out Very Well —

by Don Kopriva

Des Moines, Iowa, April 24–28—It was the 104th curtain call for the annual production of the Drake Relays, and most everything came off as scripted, although, as always, there were some scene-stealers who claimed the spotlight over the big names.

Director Brian Brown couldn't have asked for much better in the critical first year of big-bucks sponsorship by presenter Hy-Vee, an Iowa-based grocery chain.

Most of the highly-touted "London Games Rematches" generally lived up to their billing.

The weather was about as good as you can get at the end of April, with sunny skies, albeit with just a tad too much wind.

The crowds, always enthusiastic and supportive, came out in droves, with more than 45,000 watching four sessions on Thursday, Friday day and night and Saturday.

The major stars showed why they are just that. One of the first among equals in a number of "Rematches" was the redoubtable Jenny Simpson, a native Iowan, world champ and two-time Olympian who ran away from a darn good 1500 field in posting an outdoor world-leading 4:03.35.

Trailing her were Sheila Reid (4:07.92) and the most notable 6th-placer ever at Drake, high schooler Mary Cain, whose 4:10.77 cracked her own national record.

Said Simpson, "I was really happy and excited that there was some sunshine and the wind had died down some... so I just thought I'd tuck in behind the rabbit and use her as much as I can. I really didn't think I was ready to run below the 4:05 mark this early in the season but I'm really excited to have done it."

As for the precocious Cain, she offered, "It's a PR for me and a good first [outdoor] race of the season. The last 400 I really tried to hit it hard and I gained a little bit of ground because I'm a kicker, but I think it's harder to kick when there's no one around. I'm still young and I still just have to take races like this one step at a time."

Beijing silver medalist Nick Willis celebrated his 30th birthday two days late by closing the mile in 53.5 despite waving to the crowd on the homestretch en route to a 3:55.70 mile win over Miles Batty.

The hurdles offered no barriers to great performances, with Andrew Riley, who had won the NCAA 100 and highs here last spring, zipping 13.43 to upset WR holder Aries Merritt after world champ Jason Richardson false-started.

The women's high sticks were splendid, to say the least, with Queen Harrison leading a parade of Olympic finalists over the line in 12.71 in a near blanket finish (12.74, 12.78, 12.79).

Other world-leading marks included a 54.41 by Zuzana Hejnová in the 400 hurdles, and of the outdoor variety 6-4¾ (1.95) by Ruth Beitia in the women's high jump; and 71-2¾ (21.71) by Reese Hoffa in the men's shot.

In an effort to hype the college side of things and engender more relay participation, Drake offered the "Hy-Vee Cup," scoring off five relays for collegiate men's and women's teams, with Illinois taking both trophies.

Ashley Spencer was a key component of the Illinois women's effort, which showed wins in the 4x1, 4x4 and sprint medley while the resurgent men's team took 3 relay 2<sup>nds</sup> and a pair of 3<sup>ths</sup> to notch the win.

Simpson and Isiah Young of Ole Miss earned MVP honors. Young won the 100 in a barely-windy 10.07 and anchored the 4th-place 4x1 and 5th-place 4x4 relays.
