AQUITA'S SPLITS

In terms of breaking barriers, Aouita's 7:29.45 is one of the most significant times ever, representing as it does 7.5 laps at sub-60 pace. Or, think of it as 15 consecutive sub-30 200s (even though 8 of 15 were actually over 30).

Splits, as taken on the spot by Dave Johnson:

200	400	800	cum.
29.1			29.1
30.2	59.3		59.3
30.9			1:30.2
30.7	61.6	2:00.9	2:00.9
30.8			2:31.7k
30.1	60.9		3:01.8
29.8			3:31.6
29.9	59.7	2:00.6	4:01.5
30.5			4:32.0
31.3	61.8		5:03.3k
29.8			5:33.1
30.9	60.7	2:02.5	6:04.0
28.8			6:32.8
28.0	56.8		7:00.8
28.7			7:29.5

The two 1500s were covered in 3:46.5 and 3:43.0. Kilos: 2:31.7, 2:31.6, 2:26.2.

Note that the 3 final 200s were the fastest of the race. Last 400—56.7; 800—1:56.4; 1200—2:57.5; 1600—3:58.9. The final mile was probably within a 10th of 4:00.3.

If he could have covered another 218m at the same average overall 30-second pace (32.7), he would have reached 2M in 8:02.2!
