1995 IAAF Meets Set

Copenhagen, Denmark, October 13—The 1995 GP schedule was set at the annual European Calendar Congress. As in '94, there will be 25 meets (15 GP I, 10 GP II), leading up to the GP Final. Plans to modify the roster of meets have been put on hold at least until after the IAAF's current contract with Mobil expires at the end of 1995.

Earlier this year it was announced that beginning in 1995 there would be 24 meets leading up to the final. The split for next year was to be 14 GP I (necessitating the dropping/downgrading of one current meet) and 10 GP II. In '96 it was to go to 13/11, and from '97 on 12/12.

The IAAF also recognizes a third category of meets (International Invitationals), but these do not figure into GP scoring.

Also announced were the schedules for the meets on the IAAF's Indoor Circuit and the Cross Challenge.

SCHEDULE NOTES: All dates remain to be confirmed by the IAAF Council at its November meeting. And even then, don't make any travel plans without confirming the dates. . .

The hole in the schedule between August 27 and September 5 is to accommodate the World University Games (Fukuoka, Japan), a project near and dear to the heart of IAAF head Primo Nebiolo (who also heads FISU, which runs the WUG). . .

The gap at the beginning of August, of course, is for the World Championships (Göteborg, Sweden, August 4-13).

Melbourne's GP II status marks the first GP meet south of the equator. One expects a South African site to follow shortly. . .

Moscow last had GP status in the '91 season. The Russians reportedly pushed very hard to be included on the schedule. . .

USATF didn't push at all for the Indy Games, which was supposed to be a GP II meet in '94 but pulled out at the last minute, citing problems with "title sponsorship." The meet will apparently return in '95, but will not have any GP status, as USATF didn't advance the meet's candidature. . .

France's major BNP meet moves back to Paris after six years in Villeneuve-d'Ascq (a suburb of Lille).

You Can Help Us

We're considering a change in TN mailings for 1995. Currently we mail on Thursdays. If we pull out all the stops on production, we could usually get the thing into the mails on Wednesday.

The big question is whether or not pulling the stops would be worth it. We now know that many people don't get TN until Mondays. If a day-earlier mailing only means that it arrives on a Sunday, and is still delivered Monday, it's a futile exercise.

So, this issue is being mailed on Wednesday. U.S. mail customers, please drop us a line telling us when you get it (and when you usually have on Thursday mailings).
