Thanks to all of you who took the time to send us a note of weeks back, letting us know about the results of the early mailing we tried. It's clear that our getting the newsletter out of here on a Wednesday (instead of Thursday) makes a significant difference to those on the East Coast. Accordingly, we'll do what we can to switch to Wednesday mailings for the 1995 season. We'd love to promise you that we can make that deadline every week, but there are simply too many outside factors getting in our way for us to be 100% definitive. But more often than not we think we'll be able to do it.

Time To Think About Subscription Renewal

The first year of the new era of Track Newsletter is just about at an end. We've definitely found it to be a far-superior in-house reference source to the old one, and hope you were similarly pleased. We'll do everything we can to make it even better in 1995.

You have only two more issues after this one in your subscription. The first edition of the '95 series is slated to roll off the presses on January 11, so you should sign up now.

No change in price over last year. First-class mail in the U.S., Canada and Mexico is $49.00. In all other countries (air-mail only) the tariff is $75.00.

Sorry, no fax option this time. We just haven't been able to generate the interest to make it cost effective, unless you're willing to pay an exorbitant premium.
