WIND SPRINTS

Comparison of marks at the major relay meets shows the Coliseum with five bests and a tie among 13 events; Modesto with 3; Fresno two and a tie; Texas and Penn one each; and Kansas one tie... Archie Richardson, author of Archies Little Black Book, is Australian born, turned to trumpeting, then sports writing, and eventually collected the notes which have gone into his book. He's 77 now, and very active... Don Bloom of Woodland, Cal., figures that a meet between California and Russia, embracing all Olympic events, would be won by Cal. 91 to 90... Murray Halberg's 13:56.8 should be added to the all-time 5000 list... Jerome Walters runs as many as 30 330s or 15 440s early in the week, drops down to 30 220s as a race nears, and tops it off with lots of jogging on the grass. Never uses a watch as "it puts pressure on you..."

Ollan Cassell, the new sprint sensation from little East Tennessee State College, went to school as a substitute halfback on a scholarship, didn't do too well on the gridiron. He comes from the coal mining country of Virginia, where he holds the state record of 21.5. He's a freshman, 6'2" and 170. His best prep 100, at Appalachian high, near Norton, was 9.9. Says he didn't practice much in high school. "We just had meets and ran." Coach Julian Crocker says Cassal has unlimited ability, but isn't anxious to throw him in against Sime and Morrow until he has had some other top competition. He'll run in the Southeastern AAU in Atlanta, and probably in the NAIA in San Diego.

Willie Atterberry, the Michigan State frosh, graduated from Detroit Eastern High in 1952. His best marks were 2:07 and 4:42. He did not compete in track for the next two years, but picked it up again to help his battalion team in the Army. Progressed to the point where he won the all-army meet and was second in the 1955 AAU 440 hurdles. After release from the service he went to Compton college, finished fourth in Olympic Trials at 400H. Coach Karl Schlademan says "Atterberry has as great a potential as anyone I've worked with in 30 years. He's a good student and knows where he's going."

J. Frank Daugherty ran 9.6 and 20.5 in the Texas State meet of 1953, the same year that Bobby Morrow, as a junior, ran 9.8 and placed third in the 220 back of Whilden and Beck. As a Texas frosh, Daugherty ran 9.5 in his first race, took the Texas relays in 9.6, then had a thigh muscle injury. Lettered as junior and soph, but never won a major race, although running on 40.1 record relay team. So his 9.6, 20.7 conference double this year inspired the words: "Four years ago they were saying Daugherty was too good to be true; tonight he proved himself too good to be through."

BULLETIN BOARD

Next Newsletter, June 11. June issue of Track & Field News to be mailed June 11.

Dutch athlete, now in military hospital, would appreciate track and field literature, new or used--magazines, books, newspapers, photos, etc. T. Scholtens, Military Hospital, Witterstraat 128, Assen, Holland.

Share a Car between NCAA at Austin and AAU at Dayton is proposition of Dr. Linwood Dozier, 1003 Medico Dental Building, Stockton, Calif. Write him for details.

Back issues of Track Newsletter are available. 15 assorted issues from Vol 1 or Vol. 2 are priced at $1.00 per volume.

Newspaper clippings from 1952-54 period are available at cost of postage and handling. $1.00 per bundle. 5 to 8 bundles available, first come, first served.

WE ASK YOU

Track Nuts are invited to submit answers to the following questions--any or all. Please give a detailed answer, not a "yes" or "no" type answer.

1--Which track and field event do you like most, and why?

2--Of all track and field performances in history, which would you most liked to have seen, and why?

3--Describe the most exciting event you have seen?

4--What can be done to improve track and field for the athletes?

5--What can be done to improve track and field for the spectators?

6--Who is the greatest track or field athlete of all time, and why do you think so?

7--Should Track & Field News give full coverage of women's track, and why not?

8--If you could be a champion in any one event, which event would you pick, and why?

SO THEY TELL US

TN BOB GILMORE, Riverside, Cal.: "Figures revealing the great progress made by United Kingdom athletes in the distance runs between 1950 and 1956 indicate that American coaches should take heed and change their training methods. If they could do it in England, I do not see why we could not match their achievements. The following list gives the event, an arbitrary standard, the number of United Kingdom athletes achieving that standard prior to 1950, and the number achieving it after 1950:

3/4 mile, 3 minutes, 1 and 5; mile, 4:13, 5 and 57; 2 miles, 9:13, 6 and 70; 3 miles, 14:00, 1 and 31; 6 miles, 30:00, 3 and 48; 1500m, 3:53, 3 and 29; 2000m, 5:13, 0 and 4; 3000m, 8:10, 0 and 6; 5000m, 14:45, 3 and 26; 10,000m, 30:32, 0 and 9; 3000St, 9:11, 0 and 6; 2 mile ST, 10:15, 2 and 6. (Bear in mind that the Englishmen do not get a chance to participate very often at metric distances.)"

TN SIDNEY CLAIRE, Minneapolis, Minn.: "I certainly enjoyed your jump-by-jump summaries of the high jump and pole vault in the Olympics; would other fans also like to see the same for the NCAA and AAU?...I certainly agree with Henry Kaiser that an annual world championship meet would be much preferred to an inflated Olympics every four years; also useful would be dual meets with Scandinavia and Russia--a must for the future...I think there is a discrepancy in the scoring table between the high jump and pole vault, particularly at lower levels where most actual decathlon performers score. For instance, Campbell's vault in the Olympics of 11'1 $\frac{7}{8}$ " is not a good vault, but it certainly is not terrible, still it scores only as much as a 4'11 $\frac{1}{2}$ " high jump, which would be an impossible performance for any male athlete; on the other hand, 5'4 $\frac{1}{4}$ " is a very mediocre high jump, still it takes 12'1 $\frac{1}{2}$ " to score the same amount of points in the pole vault, and that is pretty reasonable and respectable for a decathlon man. In short, a poor high jump scores too high, while unless you are a Bob Richards it is almost impossible to make a decent score in the vault...Uno Palu, whom I assume is young, is impressive in that he shines in such varied decathlon events as the high jump, javelin and 1500."

TN HAL HIGDON, Chicago: "Being a steeplechaser myself I was quite interested in what Brasher had to say about the event. I agree with him that the times will come down, but it will probably take a specialist. From my point of view the most important thing is to develop a sense of rhythm between the barriers so that you don't lose your momentum going over them. If you don't have the rhythm you might as well have stayed home...Did you know that Roger Bannister was the first man to run a mile in under 4 minutes?"
