Chronology of the World Cross Country Championships

|      |              |                | Chronology of the world Cross Country Championships  |
|------|--------------|----------------|--|
| Year | No of        | No of          | Significant Events   |
| 1903 | Nations4 | Athletes41 | The first International Cross Country Championships were held in Hamilton, Scotland.   |
| 1903 | 4            | 41             | Jean Bouin (FRA) won his third consecutive title.  |
| 1913 | 6            |                | Jack Holden (GBR) recorded the largest-ever winning margin: 56 seconds.  |
| 1934 | 7            |                | Holden won his third consecutive title.  |
| 1935 | 7            |                | Holden won his fourth title.   |
| 1939 | 7            |                | Alain Mimoun (FRA) won his first title.  |
| 1949 | 8            |                | Mimoun won his fourth title.   |
| 1950 | 10           |                | Gaston Roelants (BEL) won his first title.   |
| 1962 | 10           |                | Doris Brown (USA) won her first title.   |
| 1907 | 12           |                | Brown won the race in Frederick, MD USA, while Paola Pigni (ITA) won the race in Vichy, France (same   |
| 1970 | 15           |                | as the venue of the men's race)  |
| 1971 | 18           |                | Brown won her fifth consecutive title (including the race she won in Frederick in 1970)  |
| 1972 | 15           | 197            | Despite losing a spike at 4Km, Roelants won his fourth title.  |
| 1973 | 21           | 287            | The first World Cross Country Championships were held under auspices of the IAAF in Waregem,   |
| 1775 | 21           | 207            | Belgium.   |
|      |              |                | Smallest winning margin of 0 second was recorded by Paivarinta in the men's race.  |
| 1974 | 23           | 269            | Paola Pigni-Cacchi (ITA) won her second consecutive title.   |
| 1975 | 26           | 316            | Rabat (MAR) hosted the first World Cross Country Championships in the African continent.   |
| 1770 | 20           | 510            | Including the International Cross Country Championships years, Mariano Haro (ESP) won his fourth   |
|      |              |                | consecutive silver medal.  |
| 1976 | 21           | 306            | Bernie Ford (ENG) and Ann Yeoman (ENG), husband and wife, finished 3 rd and 4 th , respectively.   |
|      |              |                | USA junior men's team won by largest margin of 44 over ESP.  |
| 1977 | 22           | 346            | Carmen Valero (ESP) won her second consecutive title.  |
| 1978 | 27           | 360            | John Treacy (IRL) became the youngest-ever winner (20 years 295 days) of senior men's race.  |
|      |              |                | ENG junior men's team won by smallest margin, 0, over CAN  |
|      |              |                | The words "IAAF World Championships" appeared on bib numbers for the first time.   |
| 1979 | 27           | 383            | In Ireland, Treacy became the first man to successfully defend a World Cross Country title.  |
|      |              |                | The winning score by ESP junior men's team, 57, is the highest in history.   |
| 1980 | 28           | 381            | Grete Waitz (NOR) recorded the largest-ever winning margin: 44 seconds.  |
| 1981 | 39           | 460            | Waitz won her (record) fourth consecutive title.   |
|      |              |                | Craig Virgin (USA) won his second consecutive title.   |
|      |              |                | Kenya and Ethiopia competed at their first World Cross Country Championships; the Ethiopian menwon the team title, while Kenyan men won the team bronze medal. |
|      |              |                | Mohamed Kedir (ETH), despite miscounting laps, won the silver medal, the first senior individual medal   |
|      |              |                | won by an African.   |
| 1982 | 33           | 382            | Originally scheduled to be held in Warsaw, the championships were transferred to Roma after Warsaw   |
| 1702 | 55           | 502            | withdrew because of a declaration of the martial law.  |
|      |              |                | Kedir won the gold medal, and thus became the first African senior individual gold medalist.   |
|      |              |                | Smallest winning margin of 1 second was recorded by Zurabachev Gelaw in men's junior race.   |
| 1983 | 35           | 432            | Waitz won her fifth title.   |
|      |              |                | Smallest winning margin of 0 second was recorded by Bekele Debele in the men's race.   |
|      |              |                | Smallest winning margin of 1 second was recorded by Feyisa Abebe in men's junior race.   |
| 1984 | 40           | 443            | The last championships at which Africans failed to win a medal in the senior men's race.   |
|      |              |                | Pere Casacuberta (ESP) became the last European World Cross junior men's champion.   |
|      |              |                | First World Cross Country Championships held on the U.S soil.  |
| 1985 | 50           | 574            | Carlos Lopes (POR) defended his title at Lisboa; Lopes became the last European-born as well as the  |
|      |              |                | oldest (38 years 34 days) World Cross Country Champion   |
|      |              |                | South African born Zola Budd (GBR) ran barefoot and became the youngest-ever (18 years 302 days)   |
|      |              |                | winner.  |
|      |              |                | For the first time in the history of World Cross, African swept the medals in junior men's division  |
| 1986 | 57           | 671            | Budd defended her title  |
|      |              |                | Africans swept the both men's divisions (senior as well as junior).  |
|      |              |                | John Ngugi won his first title.  |
|      |              |                | The Kenyan men's team began their winning streak.  |
|      |              |                | Highest winning score of 65 was recorded by ENG women's team.  |

| 1987 | 47  | 576  | The first World Cross Country Championships held in Eastern Europe (Warsaw, Poland).For the final time, England, Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland competed as the separate teams. |
|------|-----|------|---|
|      |     |      | Smallest winning margin of 0 second was recorded by Ngugi in the men's race.  |
|      |     |      | Smallest winning margin of 1 second was recorded by Wilfred Kirochi in men's junior race.   |
| 1988 | 41  | 443  | The first World XC Championships held in the Southern Hemisphere (Auckland, New Zealand).   |
|      |     |      | Wilfred Kirochi (KEN) became the first to defend junior men's title.  |
|      |     |      | Kenya swept the medals in the senior men's race for the first time.   |
|      |     |      | Ingrid Kristiansen (NOR) won her first title after nine attempts.   |
| 1989 | 41  | 568  | Ngugi won his fourth consecutive title. His winning margin was 28 seconds, a new record for this race.  |
| 1707 | 71  | 500  | The junior women's race was inaugurated.  |
| 1990 | 59  | 618  | Lynn Jennings (USA) won her first title, in her fifth attempt.  |
| 1990 | 59  | 010  |   |
|      |     |      | Khalid Skah (MAR) won his first title; Ngugi's winning streak ended.  |
|      |     |      | Skah's winning margin was 0 second.   |
|      |     |      | USSR won the women's team title for the eighth time.  |
| 1001 |     | (0.0 | Smallest winning margin of 1 second was recorded by Kipyego Kororia in men's junior race.   |
| 1991 | 51  | 633  | Skah won his second consecutive title.  |
|      |     |      | Derartu Tulu (ETH) won a silver medal, the first senior individual medal by an African woman.   |
|      |     |      | A single country (KEN) swept the team titles for the first time.  |
|      |     |      | Smallest winning margin of 0 was recorded by KEN over ETH in women's team race.   |
| 1992 | 53  | 580  | Ngugi won his fifth title.  |
|      |     |      | Jennings won her third consecutive title, at home (she lives near Boston).  |
|      |     |      | Paula Radcliffe (GBR) won the junior women's title.   |
|      |     |      | Highest winning score by junior women team, 55, was recorded by ETH   |
| 1993 | 54  | 653  | Both Kenyan junior teams (men and women) swept the medals for the first time, and achieved  |
|      |     |      | another first: a perfect team score (swept first four places) of 10.  |
|      |     |      | KEN swept team medals for the second time.  |
| 1994 | 60  | 760  | Philip Mosima (KEN) became the second, after Wilfred Kirochi in 1988, to defend junior men's title.   |
|      |     |      | William Sigei (KEN) won his second consecutive title.   |
|      |     |      | Helen Chepngeno (KEN) won the first-ever senior individual gold medal by an African woman.  |
|      |     |      | A single country (KEN) swept all individual titles for the first time.  |
|      |     |      | KEN junior women's team won by largest margin, 35, over ETH.  |
| 1995 | 58  | 619  | Paul Tergat (KEN) started his winning streak.   |
|      |     |      | Catherina McKiernan (IRL) won her fourth consecutive silver medal.  |
|      |     |      | KEN swept team titles for the third time  |
| 1996 | 65  | 669  | The World Cross Country Championships was held for the first time in South Africa.  |
| 1770 | 00  | 005  | African women swept the medals in the senior women's race for the first time.   |
|      |     |      | KEN swept the team titles for the fourth time.  |
|      |     |      | A decision was made to award prize money in the IAAF Championships beginning in 1997.   |
| 1997 | 72  | 725  | Prize money was awarded for the first time at the World Cross Country Championships.  |
| 1))/ | 12  | 125  | A decision was made in May of 1997 to add the short course at the World Cross.  |
| 1998 | 66  | 707  | Short-course races (4km) were inaugurated in the championships.   |
| 1990 | 00  | /0/  | Sonia O'Sullivan (IRL) won both short- and long-course titles.  |
|      |     |      | The Kenyan short course team achieved perfect team score (swept first five places)  |
|      |     |      | Lowest team score, 12, was recorded by KEN men's team.  |
| 1000 | ((  | 750  |   |
| 1999 | 66  | 759  | Tergat won his fifth long-course title.   |
| 2000 | = ( | 006  | Lowest team score, 12, was recorded by KEN men's team for the second consecutive year.  |
| 2000 | 76  | 806  | Moroccan-born Mohamed Mourhit (BEL) became the first European to win the long-course title in 15  |
|      |     |      | years.  |
|      |     |      | Tergat, who stayed up the previous night meeting with managers, finished third.   |
|      |     |      | The Kenyan junior men's team achieved perfect team score (swept first four places) for the second time.   |
|      |     |      | The Kenyan short course team achieved perfect team score (swept first five places) for the 2 nd time.  |
|      |     |      | Kutre Dulecha(ETH) won women's short course and thus became the first ever to win both the junior   |
| L    |     |      | (won in 1996) and senior title.   |
| 2001 | 67  | 790  | Paula Radcliffe (GBR) finally won the long-course title, on her eighth attempt, making her the first to win   |
|      |     |      | both the junior (won in 1992) and senior long title.  |
|      |     |      | Mourhit won his second consecutive long-course title.   |
|      |     |      | Kenenisa Bekele (ETH) recorded the largest winning margin in the history of the junior men's race: 33   |
|      |     |      | seconds.  |
|      |     |      | Largest winning margin of 52 was recorded by ETH over KEN in women's team race.   |

|      |    |     | Viola Kibiwot won junior women's race by smallest margin ever, 0 second.Originally scheduled to be held in Dublin, the championships were transferred to Oostend after the breakout |
|------|----|-----|---|
|      |    |     | of foot-and-mouth disease.  |
| 2002 |    | 664 | Team prize money was awarded for the first time at World Cross.   |
| 2002 | 59 | 664 | Kenenisa Bekele won both long- and short-course races for the first time, thus became the first to win  |
|      |    |     | all available titles (junior and senior long and short).  |
|      |    |     | Kenenisa is the first to win both junior and senior men's race.   |
|      |    |     | Paula Radcliffe won the long course for the second consecutive year.  |
|      |    |     | African women were shut out of the medals in the long-course race.  |
|      |    |     | Viola Kibiwot became the first to defend junior women's title.  |
|      |    |     | Smallest winning margin of 1 second was recorded by Gebre Gebremariam in men's junior race.   |
| 2003 | 65 | 605 | Ethiopia won four individual titles, while Kenya won only two.  |
| 2004 | 72 | 673 | Kenya won four team tiles, while Ethiopia won two.  |
| 2004 | 12 | 075 | The Kenyan senior men's winning streak came to an end after 18 years.Ethiopia swept the medals in men's short, long and women's junior races.                                       |
|      |    |     | Edith Masai (KEN) won women's short-course title, thus became the oldest (36 year 352 days) woman's   |
|      |    |     | champion at the World Cross Country Championships.  |
|      |    |     | Benita Johnson became first AUS to win World Cross Country Championships  |
|      |    |     | Ethiopia won five team titles and four individual (men's short, long, men and women's junior) titles.   |
|      |    |     | ETH junior women's team achieved the perfect score of 10  |
| 2005 | 72 | 695 | Kenenisa Bekele won both short and long courses for the fourth consecutive year.  |
|      |    |     | Tirunesh Dibaba (ETH) won both short and long courses, thus became the first to win all available   |
|      |    |     | titles (junior and senior long and short).  |
|      |    |     | Gelete Burika (ETH) recorded the largest winning margin ever in the junior women's race: 27 sec.  |
|      |    |     | The Kenyan junior men's team achieved perfect team score (swept first five places) for the third time.  |
|      |    |     | Smallest winning margin of 1 second was recorded by Augustine Choge in men's junior race.   |
| 2006 | 59 | 574 | Kenenisa Bekele won both short and long courses for the fifth consecutive year.   |
|      |    |     | Smallest winning margin of 1 second was recorded by Mangata Ndiwa in men's junior race.   |
|      |    |     | Pauline Korikwiang won the junior women's race by smallest margin, 0 second.  |
|      |    |     | KEN junior women's team achieved the perfect score of 10 for the second time (first in 1993)  |
|      |    |     | Short races were held for the final time.   |
|      |    |     | European failed to win men's short course individual medal.   |
| 2007 | 63 | 470 | Zersenay Tadesse (ERI) ends Kenenisa Bekele's winning streak.   |
|      |    |     | Lornah Kiplagat won the Netherland's first ever World Cross Country gold.   |
|      |    |     | Highest winning margin of 123 was recorded by KEN men's team  |
|      |    |     | KEN men's junior team scored 10 (lowest possible score for the fourth time)   |
| 2008 | 57 | 448 | Kenenisa Bekele won record sixth 12Km title.  |
|      |    |     | Ethiopia won all four individual titles for the first time in history.  |
|      |    |     | Dibaba sisters, Tirunesh & Genzebe, won senior and junior women's title, respectively.  |
| 2009 | 59 | 461 | Genzebe Dibaba defended junior women's title, first to do so since Viola Kibiwot did so in 2002   |
|      |    |     | Smallest winning margin of 0 was recorded by KEN men's team over ETH.   |
|      |    |     | Smallest winning margin of 0 was recorded by ETH women's junior team over KEN   |
|      |    |     | Smallest winning score of 14 was recorded by KEN women team.  |
| 2010 | 51 | 437 | For the first time since 1994, Kenyan won all four individual titles.   |
|      |    |     | And for the first time since 1996, Kenyan won all four team titles.   |
|      |    |     | First time in the history of World Cross Country, a single country (KEN) won all eight titles (four   |
|      |    |     | individual as well as four team titles).  |
|      |    |     | On the other hand, Ethiopia won only one individual medal, bronze in senior women's race by Melkamu.  |
|      |    |     | Smallest winning margin, 1 second, was recorded by Emily Chebet in women's race.  |
|      |    |     | Smallest winning score of 14 was recorded by KEN women team.  |
|      |    |     | KEN men's and women's junior team scored perfect 10 (lowest possible score) (for the junior men it was  |
|      |    |     | fifth time, while for junior women it was third time)   |
| 2011 | 51 | 423 | Shlane Flanagan became the first non-African born runner to win a medal since 2004 when Benita Johnson  |
|      |    |     | won the women's long race.  |
|      |    |     | Linet Masai won silver for the third consecutive years. (record is 4 consecutive silver by McKiernan)   |
| 2013 | 41 | 398 | Faith Kipyegon became third junior woman (after Viola Kibiwott and Genzebe Dibaba) to defend the title.   |
| 1 I  |    |     | The winning margin of 0 second in junior women's race ties the minimum winning margin recorded in 2001  |
|      |    |     | The winning margin of 0 second in junior women's race ties the minimum winning margin recorded in 2001  |
|      |    |     | and 2006KEN failed to win junior men's team title for the first time since 1998   |

|      |    |     | BRN won first team medal in senior women's raceFor the first time since 1984 KEN senior men's team failed to finish in top two.   |
|------|----|-----|---|
| 2015 | 51 | 410 | For the first time since 2001 US senior men won a team medal.For the second time (after 2009) in men's senior team race 0 point separated first and second and thus tiebreaker rule came into effect.               |
|      |    |     | 20 points for KEN is the lowest second place score in the men's senior race.Previous minimum was 23 points in 2003 by ETH   |
|      |    |     | 19 by ETH is the lowest ever score for the second place team in the women's senior race.  |
|      |    |     | Previous minimum was 22 points in 3 occasions (2005 by KEN, 2008 by KEN and 2010 by ETH)Geoffrey Kamworor became on the third man (after Kenenisa and Gebremariam) to win both junior andsenior World Cross titles. |
|      |    |     | Kamworor is also the fourth (after Skah, Tergat and Zersenay Tadese) to win both World Cross and WorldHalf Marathon championships.  |
|      |    |     | For the second time (after 2004) in history ETH swept the medals in junior women's race.In the past KEN swept the medals sixth times.   |
| 2017 | 60 | 557 | One point difference between first and second place team is the second lowest in the history of men's senior race.  |
|      |    |     | 22points is the second lowest team score for the second place team in the men's senior race.  |
|      |    |     | 21 sec difference between 3rd and 4th is the largest ever in the senior women's race.   |
|      |    |     | Winning score of 10 points is the smallest ever in the history of senior Women's race.  |
|      |    |     | First medal sweep (actually first six places) in women's senior race.   |
|      |    |     | 1 point difference between 3rd and 4th place team tied the smallest ever in history of junior men's race.Jacob Kiplimo won first individual gold for UGA in junior men's race   |
|      |    |     | 23 sec winning margin is the second largest in the history of junior women's race.  |
|      |    |     | 1 point difference between first and second place team is the second smallest difference in the history of junior women's race.   |
| 2019 | 63 | 520 | Joshua Cheptegei won first gold in senior men's race for UGA (previously Kiplimo won gold in junior men's race)   |
|      |    |     | UGA won first team gold   |
|      |    |     | Largest difference between 3 rd and 4 th places, 23 seconds, was recorded by Gidey in senior women's race   |
|      |    |     | Largest difference between 3 rd and 4 th places, 96, was recorded by UGA in senior women's team race  |
|      |    |     | Largest difference between 3 rd and 4 th places, 110, was recorded by KEN in junior men's team race   |
|      |    |     | Smallest difference between 3 rd and 4 th places, 1, was recorded by JPN in junior women's team race  |
|      |    |     | For the first time since 2006, difference between 1 st and 3 rd is zero in junior women's race  |
| 2023 | 48 | 453 | Smallest difference between 3 rd and 4 th places, 24 sec, was recorded by AUS team in mixed relay race  |