2028 Games Trials, Eugene, Oregon, June 17-22. The U.S. Track & Field Olympic Trials will return to historic Hayward Field at the University of Oregon. The 2028 edition will mark the sixth consecutive U.S. Track & Field Olympic Team Trials to be held in Eugene and feature a new six-day competition format, down from eight days in previous editions. The new format was designed to give athletes a more efficient selection process, especially since the Trials will take place less than a month before the LA Games. Team selection for the decathlon, heptathlon and 10,000 meters will be held earlier in the spring to allow additional recovery time before the Games. $100 per person now accepted.

2028 Summer Olympic Games, Los Angeles, California, July 14-30. The 2028 Games will begin with track & field and end with swimming for the first time since 1968. Opening Ceremony will be on July 14.
